GOVERNING BOARD PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE

With the ever-increasing cacophony of technology and global communications bringing the world's events and their array of competing interests ever so closer to the doorsteps of our Episcopal schools, I find myself wondering just how any of us, students especially, will continue to find space and time for useful contemplation, discerning just how our lives might be of use in support of the best in God's plan. At the same time and by contrast, I am grateful for our shared work in association by which I am happily reminded of God's everlasting grace and guiding presence. Buoyed by this strengthening spirit, may we become ever more courageous bearers of hope and peace in a world that hungers for it!

Episcopal schools are intentional in their vocation to educate; that we may be of use and a welcome blessing to those around us. And it is both by recognizing the depth and worth of each individual and of our collective strength in community that we seek to provide this good work. NAES is made possible by your presence and offering within community; a wide variety of faithful individuals who, through their courage and depth of being, help our association further the important work we share. You and the children you support are a blessing.

This annual report summarizes the work of NAES over the past year and we are most excited about the newly produced Strategic Plan that will guide our work for the foreseeable future. I would also like to add special thanks to a few remarkable stewards of our work. We welcomed three new members to the Governing Board: Mr. Rex Bates, Annie Wright School, Tacoma, WA; Mr. Sean Murphy, St. Andrew's School, Austin, TX; and the Rev. Mauricio Wilson, St. Paul's Church, Oakland, CA. We also bid a grateful farewell to retiring members: the Rev. Canon Susan C. Harriss, Christ's Church, Rye, NY and the Rev. Alexander N. Breckinridge IV, St. Thomas Episcopal Church, Medina, WA. Jonathan Cooper joined the NAES Staff as Communications Manager.

The governing board joins me in sharing our great pride and enthusiasm for the good work lived out in so many interesting school cultures. Along with our Executive Director, the Rev. Dan Heischman, and the hard working NAES staff, it is a pleasure to share this report of the activities of our inspiring association.

Faithfully,

EXECUTIVE DIRECTOR'S MESSAGE

True renewal and transformation comes when we develop a culture in which profound encounters can arise. Consistent with our Episcopal Schools Theme, “Be Transformed by the Renewing of your Minds” (Romans 12:2), we at NAES made time and space for many such sacred moments over the course of this year. You will find noted in this report many such occasions, including more than 20 professional development meetings (online and in person) and our Mentoring Program for New Chaplains. We have continued our conversations between heads and diocesan bishops, deepening relationships and elevating the significance of the ministry taking place in Episcopal schools. Success with our Edward E. Ford Foundation matching campaign was not only compelling, but will bring new dimensions to the future of our association. And this year NAES undertook a thorough strategic planning process, including focus group sessions throughout the country and a member survey. We look forward to launching our new strategic vision at the 2018 Biennial Conference in Atlanta, GA and continuing, with you, our pursuit of “excellence through association.”

Warmest regards,

A handwritten signature in black ink that reads "Daniel R. Heischman". The signature is written in a cursive, flowing style.

The Rev. Daniel R. Heischman D.D.
Executive Director

MISSION & PURPOSE

OUR MISSION & PHILOSOPHY

The mission of NAES is to serve those who serve Episcopal schools. Within the Christian tradition of inclusion and open inquiry, NAES:

Affirms the spiritual dimension of learning that values both faith and reason.

Creates and nurtures an extended community of leaders in order to foster partnerships, unity, mutual support and professional growth.

Promotes personal formation through moral, spiritual, intellectual, creative, physical and social development.

Assists Episcopal schools in creating supportive communities through worship, learning, pastoral care and service.

Recognizes, appreciates and supports the diversity within and among Episcopal schools.

Helps schools explore, discover and articulate their visions and ministries as Episcopal schools.

MISSION & PURPOSE

WHAT WE DO

Consonant with our mission and philosophy, we advance Episcopal education, strengthen Episcopal schools, and foster “excellence through association” by providing essential services, resources, conferences, and networking opportunities on:

Episcopal School Identity as expressed through school worship; religious studies and formation; service and service-learning; equity and justice; and school life and culture.

Leadership and Governance matters pertaining to church-school relations and governance; leadership transition; school ministry recruitment, training, and deployment; and school establishment, expansion, and planning.

Spiritual and Professional Development of heads of school, chaplains and teachers of religion, rectors, trustees and vestries, administrators, and teachers.

EPISCOPAL SCHOOLS
CELEBRATION 2017-2018:

FROM PRESIDING BISHOP
MICHAEL CURRY, IN HIS LETTER TO EPISCOPAL SCHOOLS ON THE OCCASION OF EPISCOPAL SCHOOLS
CELEBRATION 2017-2018:

- “In Romans 12, Paul invites us to be a part of something greater than we already are. We need to be transformed - not by conforming to the world as we know it, but by living into the dream God intends for it. St. Paul realized that God is in the business of reconfiguring the nature of life, but knew that change within ourselves must come from a willingness to listen.*
- “So how do we, in this ever-busy world, leave room to listen to God? How do we, amid the sometimes frantic pace of school life, leave room to be transformed by God? Asking and answering these questions are both great challenges and great responsibilities.*
- “As a part of this Jesus Movement, we are called to a whole new way of looking at things. As Episcopal schools, we are positioned to lead that renewal and transformation in the minds of our young people. As long as we leave room to listen to God, we can be a force counter to that within our culture that constantly pulls our focus to the mundane.”*

NICHES:

An occasional communiqué to the friends of Episcopal schools

Thank you to our authors this year!

On standing on Episcopal heritage to do the difficult work of Diversity & Inclusion from Mr. Lawrence Alexander, Director of College Counseling and Director of Diversity & Inclusion, The White Mountain School, Bethlehem, NH

On living out the spirit of neighborliness that transcends boundaries in an Episcopal school from Mr. David Gould, Assistant Head of School, Bethany School, Cincinnati, OH

*On “Teaching and Learning in the Episcopal Tradition” from The Rt. Rev. Peter Eaton

EDWARD E. FORD FOUNDATION MATCHING CAMPAIGN

Goal: $35,000 - Raised: $57,845

NAES was proud to have been awarded a matching Edward E. Ford Foundation to establish a professional network for diversity directors (and related positions) in Episcopal schools. In our response to the opportunity provided to us by the Foundation, we paid tribute to two exceptional Episcopal educators, Dr. Doreen Oleson and The Rev. Preston Hannibal.

The Rev. Preston Hannibal

“When I think of Preston, grace, acceptance of others regardless of background, enthusiasm for life and friendships, and wonderful humor, all come to mind. He is a treasure.”

—The Rev. Peter G. Cheney

Dr. Doreen Oleson

“Every once in a while, one encounters an individual that embodies not only kindness and wisdom, but also extraordinary generosity and dedication. Doreen has brought these qualities in abundance to her service to Episcopal schools.”

—Karan A. Merry
